

SIoux DESCEND IN CIRCLES

Rourke's Band Seeks Shelter from an Overwhelming Onslaught.

KID LOTZ IS SENT TO THE REAR

Fentress is Given Command on the Piling Line, but He is Unable to Solve the Manoeuvring of Invading Horde.

Falwell's Sioux descended in circles on Rourke's bandstand yesterday, yanking thirteen scalp against the opponent's five. It was a slaughter from the minute the Sioux were sighted. Lotz was chosen to lead the band from home, but after a council of war he was deposed in favor of Fentress, and even he contributed to the defeat.

The champions started well with three hits and two passes; an error and a sacrifice hit put four men across. Sage, who was pitted against the Rourkes, found his way. For three innings Lotz had the Sioux well in hand but the wind played havoc with his benders, and in the sixth he was found for three runs. In the seventh two more hits gave the visitors another tally, and three more runs in the eighth. Here the kid pitcher was relieved and Fentress was sent to the front. Three hits gave the visitors two more runs.

It was not until the fifth inning that the Rourkes fathomed Sage's delivery. In that inning a hit netted two runs. Another came in the seventh when Scoutman broke the motor by hitting the ball over the right field fence for the circuit of bases. In the ninth, with two men on bases, Argue was sent in to bat for Fentress. After drawing two balls he landed three sacks, sending in two runs. Score: OMAHA, 2; SIoux, 10.

Pennant Winners Drive Two Islanders from the Mound.

SWAMP THIRD CITY BY 14 TO 6

After Sending Eleven Runs Across the New Leaders Rest up for the Big Celebration Held at Park at Night.

SUPERIOR, Neb., Sept. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—The Sluggers drove two twirlers from the mound in the first inning of today's battle and hammered Moore, who finished the game, for seven runs and seven safeties. It was the most terrific slugging match ever witnessed at the local park, the Islanders getting fourteen blows to put beside the Sluggers' nineteen. After the first eleven runs were across in the second, the Sluggers slowed down a bit and finished the season's play leisurely. The features of the game were the batting of Brockwitz and Coy's peg to first base, which beat Jokers out of a base hit.

A pennant made in imitation of the rag won by the Sluggers was raised over the score board before the game. The whole town held a gigantic celebration and bonfire on the ball park tonight.
